THE REAL STORY FOR CABIN CREW

ISSUE 3

Good Morning Brighton Rockers!!

GalleyFM welcomes you to day two of ISPY 2011!

Well yesterday saw ISPY 2011 zoom off to a fabulous start when Christine cut the ribbon to get things going.

After a look at last year's highlights and some high energy networking - where everybody got to know one another, it was down to business. The crew got genned up in four training sessions and airline management were given feedback on what their crew said about them and their airlines... interesting stuff.

Then it was the turn of the top 4 airlines in the Airline of the Year competition to strut their stuff in front of their peers. Terrific presentations from all. Now the judges are hard at it, deciding who was the Best of the Best. As we go to print you are all wassailing at the Welcome Dinner, so we hope this morning finds you still 'compos mentis' (fancy bit of latin meaning 'of sound mind') because the assessments start today so you'll need your wits about you. Have a great one and we'll see you tomorrow....

ISPY'S GOT MORE TALENT

This evening has become a firm favorite with all involved and this will be the 3rd ISPY's Got Talent – again very generously sponsored by Britvic. We always knew that The World's Greatest Selling Cabin Crew were talented, but we had no idea how many of them had such truly 'STAR QUALITY'!

Nine acts have made it through to the final and each act has been assigned a 'mentor'- one of our three judges, who are: Bob Franks, Senior Commercial Manager, Britvic; Carolyn Mariani, Vice President Vendor Relations, DFASS & Martyn Westbury, International Travel Retail Manager, MARS.

However, it's up to the audience to vote for whom they think deserves the title of... 'Winner - ISPY's Got Talent 2011'.

Dress Code: Casual
Timing: 7.30pm
Location: Oxford Suite
